Bryce H. Bennett, Jr. is a founding partner of Riley Bennett & Egloff. He is an experienced business and trial lawyer having practiced in these areas since graduating magna cum laude from Indiana University's Indianapolis Law School in 1978. He graduated with high distinction from I.U.'s Kelly School of Business with a major in finance in 1975. His practice serves the insurance, construction, healthcare and entertainment industries. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Better Business Bureau and a member of the Board of Advisors of the Small Business Development Center, Indiana Chamber of Commerce Small Business Council, Economic Development and Congressional Affairs Committee and past President of the Indianapolis Bar Foundation.

Considered among the best in their profession, Super Lawyers® represent the top 5% of the practicing attorneys in Indiana. The Indiana Super Lawyers® for 2005 were selected by their peers in an extensive nomination and polling process conducted by Law & Politics and published in a special advertising section in the March 2005 issues of INDIANAPOLIS MONTHLY and the INDIANA SUPER LAWYERS® magazine.
